THE FUN AWAKENS
THE 32ND ANNUAL BOIS D’ARC BASH
SEPTEMBER 22-23, 2017
Dear Chamber Members,

May the Bash be with You

September is my favorite month of the year as the 32nd Annual Bois d’Arc Bash is finally here.

This year’s Bash is slated to be the best one yet with a bigger carnival than years past, more vendors, and more great music taking the downtown stage. If you enjoyed the music at the July 4th celebration, you’ll really enjoy the Bash as Twisted Whisky is returning to perform for us again along with Nevermind and headliner Zane Williams as well as all of our tried and true favorites playing throughout the day. Fridays events will include the annual Golf Tourney held at Sand Hills Country Club followed by the CLI barbeque fundraiser on the square. We’ll have a Friday night street dance with entertainment by Steel Drum Band, Cross Trails Church Band, and the Jacoby Smith Band will headline. Our annual Miss Bois d’Arc Pageant will take place 2 weeks before the Bash on September 9th at the First Baptist Church. The Bash Parade will be at 10:00 on Saturday morning lead by our Grand Marshal, Angela Roberts.

If you love the Bash as much as I do, we’d love to have you join us as a vendor, sponsor, participant, and or volunteer. Information is available on the website at www.http://boisdarc-bash.com or you can follow the Bash Facebook at https://www.facebook.com/boisdarcbash. We look forward to spending our Bash with You!

Best Regards,

Dr. Shanan Gwaltney Gibson Named Dean of College of Business

By Scott Cason

Dr. Shanan Gwaltney Gibson has been named Dean of College of Business at Texas A&M University-Commerce. Gibson joins the university’s academic leadership team after service as the Associate Dean for Student & Faculty Development at East Carolina University, where she was responsible for directing the university’s undergraduate programs, graduate programs, and the Center for Student Success.

A&M-Commerce Provost Dr. John Humphreys said of the appointment: “We believe Dr. Gibson is the right person to lead our world-class business school in providing opportunities for our students to transform their lives. Also, as a member of the university academic leadership team, she will play an integral role in shaping the direction of academic affairs more broadly on our campus.”

Gibson held several academic leadership roles at East Carolina University over the course of her 16-year career with the institution, including service as chair and a member of the University Budget Committee, a member of the Sedona Replacement Executive Committee, a member of the Office of Faculty Excellence Advisory Council, and the Graduate Programs to Serve Military Population Committee. She also served as a leader in the local community as a faculty advisor for Campus Civitan since 2014.

Gibson served as an appointed member of the federal Social Security Administration’s Occupational Information Advisory Panel for four years where she provided advice and recommendations that would enable SSA to develop an occupational information system suited to its disability programs and improve the medical-vocational adjudication policies and processes. She has authored/co-authored in excess of 35 peer-reviewed journal articles and was an editor and author of The Handbook of Work Analysis in Organizations: Methods, Systems, Applications, & Science of Work. Shanan is a past president of SEDSI, SEINFORMS, and has held multiple positions on the board of the Small Business Institute®; she was also co-editor of the Small Business Institute Journal® for three years. Shanan has provided human resources-related consulting to State Farm Insurance agencies across the mid-Atlantic and is currently active in multiple AACSBS groups including the Women Administrators in Management Education interest group.

“I am delighted and honored to serve as the new dean of the College of Business,” Dr. Gibson said. “I saw a passion for student success and academic excellence that aligned with my values and I am excited to join the team of outstanding professionals that consider Texas A&M University-Commerce their home. I look forward to partnering with faculty, staff, students, alumni, and the business community to provide a superior business education, one that transforms the lives of our students and positively impacts our business community.”

Dr. Gibson and her husband, Dr. Jim Gibson (LtCol, USMC), plan to settle in Commerce with their ridiculously spoiled dogs, Calculus and DiffyQ.
DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS AND ASTRONOMY AWARDED
NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION GRANT

By Jasmine Baker

A team led by Dr. Bao-An Li was awarded a grant of $570,800 from the National Science Foundation for their project "Physics and Astronomy Scholarships for Success (PASS)." Dr. Cheri Davis and Dr. Matt A. Wood are Co-PI's on the project.

"After working almost three years on the proposal, we are excited about the opportunities this grant will bring to our students and its potential impacts on the physics program at TAMU-Commerce," said Dr. Li.

Students majoring in Physics at A&M-Commerce may be eligible to receive up to $7,800 per year for up to three years, plus $500 per year to travel to present research results at scientific meetings. Texas A&M University-Commerce will implement the Physics and Astronomy Scholarships for Success (PASS) project to provide at least 45 scholarships over five years to academically talented physics majors with demonstrated financial need at an "R2: Doctoral Universities–Higher Research Activity" institution in rural Texas.

A&M-Commerce focuses on students transferring from 23 regional community colleges serving high percentages of underrepresented minorities. The PASS project will implement new strategies for increasing recruitment, retention and graduation of physics majors and provide innovative support for them to enter top graduate schools in physical sciences or find rewarding jobs in a field of Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM). The gathered knowledge on how to address complex issues of providing student support for the targeted populations gathered has tremendous implications for other rural institutions attempting to increase the retention and graduation of physics majors through both financial and other innovative support strategies. The PASS project will also help meet the broadly recognized national need for more high-quality physics majors.

“We are very excited to be able to offer these NSF scholarship and research opportunities to our students. Physics graduates are extremely competitive in the job market, as they’re qualified for all manner of technical jobs, and we’re working to substantially increase the number of top physics graduates in the northeast Texas region,” said Dr. Wood, Head of the Department of Physics and Astronomy.

TECH TITANS NAMES TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-COMMERCE A FINALIST FOR THE TECH TITANS OF THE FUTURE – UNIVERSITY LEVEL AWARD

By Jasmine Baker

Tech Titans, the largest technology trade organization in Texas, has named Dr. Robynne Lock and A&M-Commerce’s Studio Physics program a finalist in the Tech Titans of the Future – University Level Award category as part of the 17th Annual Tech Titans Awards.

"I am honored to be a finalist for a Tech Titans award. Working to improve my classes to have better outcomes for my students is very important to me, and it is wonderful to see Studio physics recognized," said Dr. Lock.

Studio physics is a student-centered active-learning environment in which students spend the majority of class time on group work. Activities include Tutorials in Introductory Physics, Context-rich Problems, and PhET tutorials, all research-based teaching materials. By creating an active-learning classroom, students learn the course content better. They improve their conceptual understanding and problem-solving abilities. Studio has better outcomes regarding students’ attitudes towards physics and aiding in recruitment and retention of STEM majors.

The Tech Titans Awards recognizes the elite in North Texas technology – individuals currently transforming the high-tech industry and giving companies that competitive edge, as well as companies leading the way in innovation and technical applications. The Tech Titans Awards showcases the innovators, adopters and executors impacting the technology industry for the greater good.

The winners for each category will be announced at the Tech Titans Awards Gala on Friday, August 25, 2017 in front of 800 of the top North Texas technology influencers. The gala will take place at the Renaissance Dallas at Plano Legacy West Hotel in Plano, Texas, and will start with a reception at 5:30 p.m. leading up to the award ceremony from 7 to 10 p.m.

“We are proud to be able to recognize the individuals and organizations that make a substantial impact in the North Texas technology industry each and every day,” said Bill Sproull, president and CEO of Tech Titans. “The innovation, leadership and advocacy each of our finalists contributes to the industry make a significant difference in our communities and the world. We look forward to seeing what each of these elite individuals and companies will continue to do for years to come.”

The 2017 award sponsors include Comerica, Crowe Horwath, Dallas Business Journal, Deloitte, Ericsson, Fujitsu, Huawei, M/C/C, Nokia, Renaissance Dallas at Plano Legacy West Hotel, State Farm, VLSIP Technologies and ZRG Partners. Additional sponsors for the event are Bravo Tech, Haynes and Boone, Qorvo and Texas Instruments.

For more information on the event or to purchase tickets, visit www.techtitans.org.
CHAMBER MEMBERSHIP AND COMMERCE PRIDE

By Paul Voss

I want to thank all the people of Commerce for their support of your Chamber of Commerce. It’s been almost 3 ½ years since I took over the Chamber as Executive Director and this 32 Bois d’Arc Bash is my 4th Bash to oversee. This type of event is hectic, nerve racking, frustrating, time consuming, hard, nail biting, hair pulling, screaming, yelling, relentless, overwhelming, and also rewarding, fun, relaxing, prideful, joyful, pleasing did I mention frustrating. I had no idea 4 years ago what fun and what satisfaction could be derived by working for the Chamber of Commerce could be. I get to help bring joy to Commerce and with the help of a great staff as well as a great Chamber Board of Directors the events we bring seem to fulfill the goal of our charter.

First and foremost we are here to promote business and businesses here in Commerce, Texas. We strive to do just that every day of every week of every year. We are the business community advocate to not only the City Government, the County Government and the State and National Government but to the public. We have a banner in our office that says “This is Our Commerce”. We display this sign at every event and every time we have a Ribbon Cutting or a new business opening. We promote solidarity and prove it with actions to revive downtown, Culver Street, Hwy 24, Live Oak, Park St., Hwy 224 and all the places in Commerce where business dwells. The Chamber of Commerce is over 100 years old in Commerce and I am honored to be the 29th Executive Director.

We are encouraging everyone who wishes, to become members of the Chamber. We have a lot of individual members as well as small and large businesses. Our Connection newspaper has a business directory, places to advertise and relevant news stories that come out each month. Our relationships have brought business owners together to share in ideas and common goals. We have helped lease and sell buildings and property as well as give tours of Commerce on a regular basis to promote and extol the virtues of doing business here. Giving back to our community is our pledge and we take that very seriously.

Your Chamber of Commerce is to promote Retail, Service Establishments, Manufacturing, Wholesalers, Construction Firms, Real Estate, Investment, Insurance, Professionals, Farmers, Ranchers, Hotel, Motels, Restaurants, Home Owners, Property Owners as well as Civic and University members. Your Chamber is involved in Governmental Affairs and serves on the Hunt Count Steering Committee for Transportation, The Hunt County Governmental Affairs Committee, I-30 Transportation Committee, Tex-21 Committee, The FISH Board, the Hunt County Economic Affairs Committee and many others that affect business in Commerce.

We at the Chamber are involved and want you to be involved. There are many times we need volunteers and you can help us with events and planning. Community Service is a very rewarding effort and we are asking you to help as well. You can reach us at info@commerce-chamber.com or call us at 903 886 3950.

Come see us September 22nd and 23rd at the 32 annual Bois d’Arc Bash.

COMMERCHE STRONG EVENT ON COMMERCE SQUARE SEPT. 9TH 10AM

There will be an event called Commerce Strong on the downtown Commerce Square Saturday September 9th from 10am to 11am to celebrate Community, Togetherness, Balance, Care, Friendship and Harmony in our community. The event is called “Commerce Strong” and there will be community leaders there to have a few words of unity and solidarity for our town. In a time where communities are split apart for many reasons, Commerce is a great place that thrives on its diversity. Please come downtown for a few minutes to show your support for our community and enjoy some snacks and food provided by Mckay’s and Peace of Bread.

LOCAL CHURCH, CHAMBER, FIRE DEPARTMENT AND BUSINESSES SEND HELP TO THE GULF COAST

Hurricane Harvey has really called on Southeast Texas in a devastating way this past week. Flood waters have wreaked havoc on the Gulf Coast from Corpus Christi to Beaumont and into Louisiana. Tens of thousands of people have been driven out of their homes and into shelters with little more than the clothes on their backs. Water is in businesses and homes that have never seen flood waters before. Some are saying this is a thousand year flood and 54 inches of rain is the most from any storm in U.S. history. A week later and some areas are still having rising water. The Coast Guard alone has performed over 12,000 rescues.

One of the amazing things that have been noted is the amount of people that are bringing their personal boats, canoes, monster trucks or just wading to help flood victims get out of the flood zones. Texans helping Texans as well as from other states, dropping what they were doing and going to the coast just to help.

The Chamber of Commerce has teamed up with Cross Trails Cowboy Church in providing the victims of the flood with t-shirts, water, toilet items, food and lots of water. Charles Lowrey the Assistant Pastor of Cross Trails and 2 Lay Pastors, Billy Mercer and Kevin Ice loaded up and headed for New Waverly this week to take much needed supplies to the Coast. The Commerce Fire Department is gathering water as well as planning a trip to assist in any way they can to help the stressed departments in the area.

Some local pilots who coordinated their efforts with the Salvation Army took sever airplanes from the Commerce Airport to Conroe to distribute Diapers, Formula, Sleeping Bags and Toilet Items on Friday of this week.

This catastrophe is going to be an ongoing issue for weeks and months to come and the Chamber is going to stay active in this effort. We will keep you informed of any needs on a regular basis through our web site and e-mail. Keep the Gulf Coast in your prayers and help when you can.

FALL EDITION FOR SPOTLIGHT ON BUSINESS IS 10-2-4 RANCH

Spotlight on business in Commerce is kicking off with Spotlight on 10-2-4 Ranch. The ranch is located at 3272 fm 2655 Commerce, Texas 75428. There is so much to do at the 10-2-4 it’s hard to fit it all into one article. Larry and Colette Young have a love of the outdoors and live the lifestyle to it’s fullest. They are the owners of the ranch and have been developing wildlife and habitat for quite a few years now. The ranch offers hunting excursions for many upland game birds such a chucker, quail and pheasant. They have migrating hunts for dove, duck and geese as well. The lakes on the ranch are brimming with trophy bass and the woods and fields are full of trophy whitetail deer. If you are a more exotic type of hunter there are Axis, Nilgai, Black Buck, Fallow as well as sheep to hunt.

10-2-4 ranch offers a 11,000 square foot lodge with 8 bedrooms , each bedroom has 2 Queen size sleep number beds with Satellite TVs and screened in porches to relax in. They also have a 5 stand Clay range and a rifle range to sight in your guns. The ranch can also be used for weddings, social gatherings, club events, parties or whatever event you have in mind. This beautiful place is 5 minutes from Commerce near Fairlie, Texas. Lindsey Ewert is the event planner and can be contacted at 903-496-2899 and Adam Jauch coordinates hunting at 254-485-3080. If you want to look them up on line it is www.10-2-4ranch.com

Larry and Colette also raise Angus cattle on this working ranch and look forward to you calling to make an appointment to check out this hidden treasure right here in Commerce, Texas.
BGC donates $52,000, expands ‘Cash for My Class’ program to Brookshire’s, Super 1 Foods and FRESH by Brookshire’s stores

Brookshire Grocery Co. is donating $52,000 to schools in 25 communities with Spring Market stores and expanding the “Cash for my Class” program to include all Brookshire’s, Super 1 Foods and FRESH by Brookshire’s stores. Now through June 15, 1 percent of qualifying purchases will be earmarked for customers’ choice of participating schools, with schools to receive donations early in the 2018-2019 school year.

Qualifying product brands include Brookshire’s, Super 1 Foods, Spring Market, Goldenbrook, Full Circle, Simply Done, PAWS, Top Care, Pure Harmony, Tippy Toes, B-Leve, CharKing, Culinary Tours, Nostimo, Sweet P, Over the Top, Valu Time, Food Club, Wide Awake, and World Classics.

Customers will need “Cash for My Class” tags to scan during transactions. After a school is registered for the program, tags will be available at local Brookshire’s, Super 1 Foods, Spring Market or FRESH by Brookshire’s stores.

All public and private elementary, middle, intermediate, junior high and high schools are eligible to participate in “Cash for My Class.” Schools must complete an enrollment form and provide W-9 documentation by April 1 to participate. Details and enrollment forms are available at Brookshires.com/cashformyclass, Super1Foods.com/cashformyclass, Spring-Market.com/cashformyclass, or FreshbyBrookshires.com/cashformyclass.

“We are excited to make this donation and to expand the program to benefit schools and students in all of the communities we serve,” said Brad Brookshire, Chairman and CEO for Brookshire Grocery Co. “I want to thank everyone in advance for joining us in this effort to make an impact where it really counts, with our kids’ education.”
